Report of Audit - Deferred and Expense Credits and Related
Accounts for the Period 1 July 1956 - 31 March 1957

5 November 1957

*Chart & Description of Accts - Finance Div.
General*

1. Subject report requested advice as to the progress being made toward getting Account 354 (Deferred Credits - Refunds from Staff Agents) on a current basis and establishing improved accounting procedures.

25X1A1d

2. An analysis has been made of this account through 30 June 1957 and it has been determined that the open balances, both debit and credit, fall into two categories.

a. Those representing bookkeeping transactions involving the transfer of balances from the 300.2 account, credits resulting from payroll deductions and debits arising from billings. In this category the question of employee liability was not involved.

25X1A1d

b. Those containing debit and credit balances representing the difference between employee refunds and amounts billed by [redacted]. In this category the question of employee liability must be resolved.

25X1A1d

3. The accounts mentioned in 2 (a) above have been completely reviewed and reconciled and immediate action is being taken to adjust the balances. Those accounts mentioned in 2 (b) are presently being analyzed and action will be taken to adjust the balances when this work is completed.
